

Topic Homework: Why Are We Here? (Settlements)

This homework is an opportunity for you to research something that interests you and that you will enjoy taking time over. You can be as creative as you like and these ideas are suggestions. You might have one of your own you would like to try!

The Homework Festival will take place on the morning of Friday 25th October. Please bring your homework in the day before.

Create a papier-mâché landscape with a river. You could include a model of a grass/stick hut. You might even like to try making a model of the River Cam with nearby Castle Hill.

Draw or paint a very old building in Cambridge. Can you find out which is the oldest building in Cambridge? The oldest college?

You are an explorer who has discovered the perfect place to live! Write an account of what you find, describing the scenery and habitats. What can you see? What can you hear? How will you survive there?
